The Ignition Interlock Program may deny, suspend, or revoke the privilege of being a certified ignition interlock manufacturer for any violation of the law, rules, or regulations relating to the Ignition Interlock Program. The Ignition Interlock Program may deny, revoke, or suspend the manufacturer for the following:

1. Conviction of a felony or any crime involving violence, dishonesty, deceit, fraud, indecency or moral turpitude;
2. Knowingly presenting false or misleading information to the Ignition Interlock Program;
3. Failure or refusal to permit the Ignition Interlock Program to inspect, audit, or investigate the premises, program records, equipment, etc.;
4. Failure to submit the application with supporting documentation within the prescribed time limit; or
5. Failure to maintain Department approved standards in instruction, equipment, or facilities.

I hereby apply for the Ignition Interlock Manufacturer Certificate which shall be valid for one (1) year. I affirm that I have read and understand the obligations of the ignition interlock manufacturer set forth in the Rules of Ignition Interlock Device Program T.C.A. §1340-03-06 and I am fully capable of carrying out said obligations. I give consent for the Ignition Interlock Program to conduct whatever investigations necessary to determine my eligibility to hold such certificate. I understand that false, misleading, or incomplete information in my application may result in denial, suspension, or revocation of the certificate, as well as possible criminal prosecution and civil action. Under penalty of perjury, I do hereby affirm that the information contained within this application, and any statements made in connection therewith, are complete, true, and correct.
